"If there is one fighter in the business I can beat it is Fitzsimmons," said McCoy. "I think I am eleverer than he, and as I have gained fifteen pounds during the last few months it will enable me to be strong for him."

McCoy hasn't much of a chance to fight "Lanky Bob." No answer has been received from the Cornishman to the message sent him a week ago. The men Fitzsimmons will fight if he does resenter the ring are Jim Corbett and Gus Ruhlin.

It is understood from an authoritative source that Mr. Bell won the biggest bet of his life. As he has confessed in the past that he won $50,000 on the victory of Alcedo in the Suburban of 1901, the chances are that at least $30,000 was raked down by Mr. Bell when G.
